Thank you to the newly formed Trial Committee for your support and for taking on various tasks leading up to the trial. Thanks to Greg Milner again for assistance with the Trial program, and a big thanks to Louise Duffy for offering her time in the Office over the weekend.

A huge thanks to Viv O'Grady for organising the Stewards for me this year, and John Fulton for organising the Equipment, and a special thanks to the club members who have sought sponsorship, generously given their time for training Stewards, attending meetings and working bees leading up to and including helping in some way during the trial weekend, and also to those who have made donations towards the catering, and the raffle, thank you to Karen & Kelly Hourticolon for the Major raffle donation. The Trial cannot run without all this individual support, I really appreciated your time and effort, you have all contributed to the success of the weekend. Thanks to the Committee members for their support and offers of assistance and the Kitchen staff for their outstanding work feeding all the Judges, Stewards, helpers and competitors during the weekend.

The Raffle will be drawn at a suitable time on Sunday.

Trialers Please Note:

From April 1st, 2014 The Warrnambool Dog Training School in conjunction with the Warrnambool City Council "Healthy City Program" will be going Smoke Free at the Harris Street Reserve. This will mean all future trials held at these grounds will be Non Smoking events for the entire Harris Street Reserve area, with a couple of designated smoking areas to be determined.

The introduction of this Policy is a proactive approach ahead of a State Government Ban on Smoking at all Junior Sporting events from the 1st October, 2014, the Warrnambool City Council has determined that the No Smoking Ban will be introduced across all Sporting fields within the Warrnambool City Council boundaries.

The WDTS Committee wishes to advise you of this important change to our Sporting ground.

Necia Lynch
